Call for Posters

You are invited to submit an abstract for a poster to be presented at a conference dealing with various aspects of nutrition, health, and gender in Sub-Saharan Africa with a particular emphasis on nutrition and the role of agriculture. This conference will explore from a range of disciplinary perspectives the relationship between gender and health in Sub-Saharan Africa.

The range of topics for posters to explore is broad, including but not limited to the following:

- Access and equity in agriculture and agricultural services
- The role and impact of micro-finance
- Post-harvest loss
- Women’s empowerment in agriculture
- Opportunities for big data
- Maternal-child health
- Gender-based violence

Instructions

- We will accept submissions for consideration from any faculty, graduate student, post-doctoral researcher, or other researcher.
- Please submit an abstract of no more than 350 words summarizing the content of the poster, along with the title and listing of all authors.
- Submit to Anita Kaiser by email in a Word Document attachment. Label the email “Nutrition, Health and Gender Conference Abstract Submission”
- Submission deadline: September 25, 2015
- Decisions on accepted posters will be announced on October 2, 2015
- Poster Specifications: 18” x 24”

Website: ingenaes.illinois.edu/nhg-conference/

Co-sponsored by Women and Gender in Global Perspectives Program (WGGP), the United States Agency for International Development (USAID)-funded MEAS and INGENAES projects housed in the Dept. of Agricultural and Consumer Economics, the Center for African Studies through support from the US Department of Education’s Title VI NRC Program, and the Office of International Programs of the College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Contact: Anita Kaiser
arkaiser@illinois.edu, 217-333-6221